

Minnesota

A Great Place for a Business

Business Incentives

Greater Minnesota Business Expansion Tax Credits, Research and Development Tax Credit, Seed Capital, Tax Increment Financing

Infrastructure

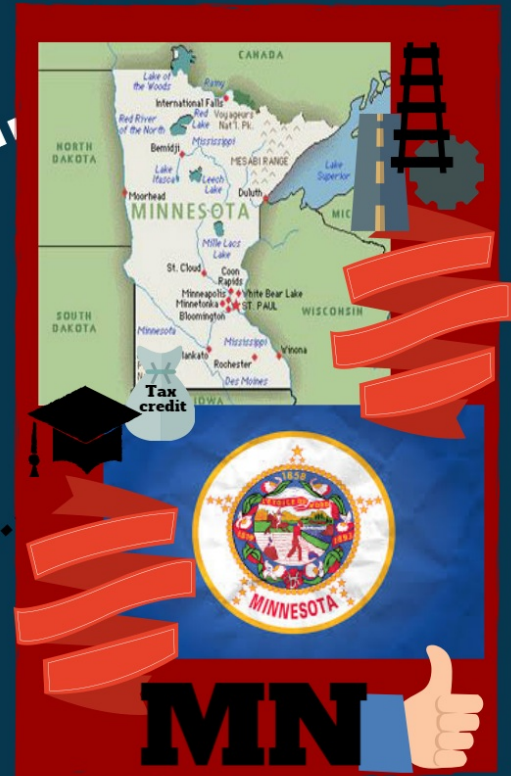

Efficient network of roads and highways, ports and waterways connecting to some of the Great Lakes and the Mississippi River, railways, airlines, and utilities

Labor

The state's work force is top ranked across the nation for people who have obtained a bachelor's degree or higher, which creates a skilled workforce and makes the state competitive relative to others

DEED

Minnesota's Department of Employment and Economic Development states that the manufacturing sector is the backbone of the states economy

not a right to work state minimum wage is $8

